

Being a Pro: Honeycomb Network Professionals Report

Honeycomb's 2020 Network Professionals Report demonstrates the core competencies, growth and knowledge of professionals who interacted with services, resources and trainings provided by Honeycomb. Utilizing the existing standardized survey from the Jewish Teen Education and Engagement Funder Collaborative, questions were designed to correlate with their Cross-Community Evaluation (CCE) and facilitate a fair comparison of the Jewish professional field.

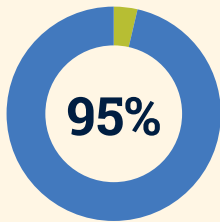

» THE BENEFITS OF HONEYCOMB «

Jewish Identity Building

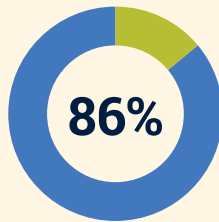

Honeycomb Network Professionals:

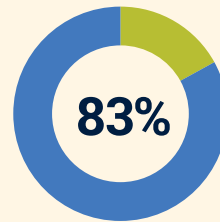

who frequently attended Honeycomb events have a higher sense of preparation to deliver Jewish content.

feel confident to model to teens their own growth as a Jewish adult.

feel confident to infuse Jewish content into their work with teens.

feel confident to facilitate teens in exploring their own Jewish journeys.

Skills

Honeycomb Network Professionals are confident about their abilities in the following key areas:

- 95% Cultivating youth leadership.
- 95% Serving as a mentor/role model to teens.
- 93% Ensuring that teens understand the importance of "giving back".
- 86% Providing activities that are designed to help teens develop social skills (communication, conflict resolution).

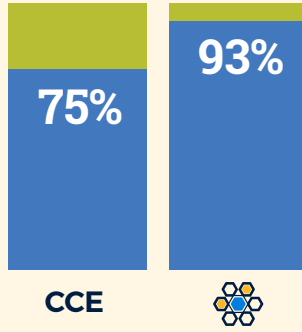

Where Honeycomb Pros Excel

When compared with the data from CCE*, Honeycomb Network Professionals excelled in the following areas:

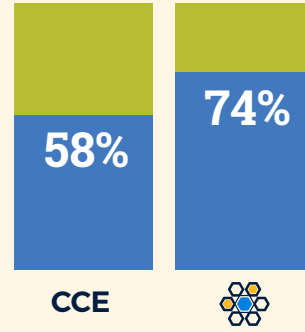

23% more felt prepared to cultivate youth leadership.

18% more felt prepared to ensure that teens understand the importance of "giving back".

16% more felt prepared to use technology and new media effectively.

» WELLNESS «

Professionals are conscientious of teen perspectives on wellness. Consistent with CCE, Honeycomb Network Professionals identified COPING WITH ACADEMIC PRESSURE and MANAGING ANXIETY & DEPRESSION as the top concerns for their participants.

» LOOKING FORWARD «

Professional's Goals for Teens

Top 3 Goals for Honeycomb Network Professionals for their teens:

- 1 Teens build leadership skills.
- 2 Teens feel proud of being Jewish.
- 3 Teens have a better understanding Jewish values.

Honeycomb Goals for Professionals

Consistent with CCE data, Honeycomb Network Professionals are in need of more support in the following areas:

- 1 Recruitment models.
- 2 Ways to track participant data.

